Located on the entrance floor of the impressive Museum Galleries building, the reception foyer to the Museum is an attractive, bright space in which to hold any style of corporate function. With its capacity to accommodate 200 people standing and 110 seated, this space is ideal for launches, recitals and receptions. It is available for hire on Monday from 10:00-21:00 and Tuesday-Saturday from 17:00-21:00.

Set in stunning grounds, the National Museum of Ireland – Country Life, Turlough Park in Co. Mayo has three beautiful corporate function rooms.

The Museum's spaces are ideal for holding corporate events ranging from seminars, conferences and receptions to meetings and launches. Located in the grounds of Turlough Park Estate, the Museum comprises the estate's original house, which is in the High Victorian Gothic style and has been fully restored, as well as a purpose-built Exhibition Gallery. The extensive grounds also house an artificial lake and the site of a castle that dates from Anglo Norman times.

The innovative exhibits on show at the Museum tell the story of Irish country life between 1850 and 1950 with particular emphasis on domestic life, agriculture, fishing and hunting, clothing and textiles, furniture and fittings, trades and crafts, transport, leisure, and religion.

Turlough Park is located just 8 km from Castlebar and has ample free car parking. The Galleries Foyer and Audio Visual Theatre are wheelchair accessible.
