

Access to Information on the Environment (AIE)

The European Communities (Access to Information on the Environment) Regulations 2007 to 2018 can be used to obtain environmental information from a public authority. An unofficial consolidation of the Regulations is available here.

If you wish to request access to information on the environmental under the IE Regulations, the following steps are required:

Please send in your request via email or letter to aie@museum.ie or please mail to:

(AIE) Director's Office
The National Museum of Ireland
Collins Barracks
Benburb Street,
Dublin 7
D07 XKV4
Ireland

- Please mention AIE Regulations in your request.
- Please be as specific as possible as this will facilitate a quicker turnover in response.
- Please provide your contact details.

More information on AIE Regulations can be found in the links below:

Department of Communications, Climate Action & Environment
https://www.dccae.gov.ie/en-ie/about-us/compliance/access-to-information-on-the-environment-\(aie\)/aie-legislation/Pages/AIE-Legislation.aspx/aie-legislation/Pages/AIE-Legislation.aspx)

Citizen's Information website
https://www.citizensinformation.ie/en/environment/environmental_law/access_to_environmental_information.html

Commissioner for Environmental Information
<https://www.ocei.ie/>